ADDENDUM: Office of Research Supports

The TWU Office of Research (ORS) provides a full suite of support services for researchers including research program planning for new faculty, 1-on-1 consultation and grant workshops to aid in the preparation of applications for research funding, full post-grant fund and hiring management, contracts negotiation, human research ethics, animal care and biosafety. The ORS also operates an extensive internal website that communicates research grant opportunities to Faculty, administration of internal grants and administration of undergraduate student research awards.
