SCHOOL OF BUSINESS TRAVEL STUDY

Learn first-hand about our Canadian legal system

On this exciting law trip to Ottawa, you'll get to stay in the historic Laurentian Leadership Centre (LLC). You will visit numerous legal sites around the nation's capital, including the Supreme Court of Canada, Parliament, Canadian Intellectual Property Office, and others. This trip will include visits to numerous cultural sites around Ottawa and will likely include a two-day excursion to historic Quebec City and a wind-up dinner cruise—the Kingston 1000 Island Cruise.

COURSES

BUSI 245 TR – FOUNDATIONS OF BUSINESS LAW IN CANADA

This course gives you an overview of business law with specific focus on the law of contracts. Attention is given to offer and acceptance, consideration, assignment, discharge, breach and remedies available at law. Prerequisite: Second-year standing or instructor's consent.

BUSI 346 TR – LAW FOR THE BUSINESS MANAGER

This course follows up on BUSI 245 and gives you the knowledge and skills to manage a number of business areas that have potential legal risk. Learn all about sale of goods, agency, bailment, insurance and guarantees, negotiable instruments, employment and human rights, intellectual property, real property, mortgages, partnerships, the nature and operations of corporations, credit transactions, and government regulation of business. Pre-requisites: BUSI 245.

POLS 493 TR – LAW, PUBLIC POLICY AND CULTURAL CHANGE

Learn about historical and contemporary debate in Canada on what constitutes culture and our contemporary cultural challenges; how Christians interface with that culture and the role of organized religion; Christian critique of culture and the methodologies and perspectives of various entities that seek to influence culture. You will observe first-hand how Canadian culture is formed within the Ottawa setting in their discipline. Prerequisite(s): None.

INSTRUCTORS

KEVIN SAWATSKY, J.D.

Kevin Sawatsky has a Bachelor of commerce and Master of Business Administration from the University of British Columbia and a Juris Doctor from the University of Victoria. Since 1993, he has served on the School of Business faculty at Trinity Western University as assistant and associate professor, School of Business dean, and professor of law. He was appointed University Legal Counsel in 2008 and Vice Provost (Business) in 2011. In 2014, he returned to the School of Business to serve as dean. Sawatsky continues to practise law since being called to the bar of British Columbia in 1993. Focused in the areas of employment, human rights, charities, and construction law, he was part of the legal team providing counsel for TWU at the Supreme Court of Canada.

JON WAIND, Ph.D.

Jon Waind holds a Master of Theological Studies from Trinity Western Seminary and a PhD in Religious Studies from McGill University. He has taught at McGill, Concordia and St. Francis Xavier Universities prior to joining Trinity Western's Laurentian Leadership Centre as Interim Executive Director in late September of 2023. Jon primarily teaches and does research at the intersection of religious ethics and public life. He resides on the West Island of Montreal with his wife Tonja and their four children.

If you missed the opportunity to participate in this year's travel study, it will likely run again in 2025.
